

Ever thought about joining your
doctor's Patient Participation Group?

Everyone has a voice

Patient Participation Groups (PPGs) are groups of patients interested in healthcare, who want to get involved and support the running of their local GP practice.

Contact your GP practice for more information on joining your local Patient Participation Group.

